If you initially acquired a copy of the Product without purchasing a license and you wish to purchase a license, contact SafeNet or any SafeNet representative.

2. SECTION II - APPLICABLE TERMS WHEN GRANTED A LICENSE

- 2.1 License Grant. Subject to your payment of the license fees applicable to the type and amount of licenses purchased by you and set forth in your applicable purchase order, SafeNet hereby grants to you, and you accept, a personal, nonexclusive and fully revocable limited License to use the Software (as such term is defined in Section III hereunder, in the Intellectual Property subsection), in executable form only, as described in the Software accompanying user documentation and only according to the terms of this Agreement: (i) you may install the Software and use it on computers located in your place of business, as described in SafeNet's related documentation; (ii) you may merge and link the Software into your computer programs for the sole purpose described in the Sentinel HASP Software Protection and Licensing Guide; however, any portion of the Software merged into another computer program shall be deemed as derivative work and will continue to be subject to the terms of this Agreement; and (iii) you are permitted to make a reasonable number of copies of the Software solely for backup purposes. The Software shall not be used for any other purposes.
- 2.2 Sub-Licensing. After merging the Software in your computer program(s) according to the License Grant section above, you may sub-license, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, the merged Software and resell the hardware components of the Product, which you purchased from SafeNet, if applicable, to distributors and/or users. Preceding such a sale and sub-licensing, you shall make sure that your contracts with any of your distributors and/or end users (and their contracts with their customers) shall contain warranties, disclaimers, limitation of liability, and license terms which are no less protective of SafeNet's rights than such equivalent provisions contained herein. In addition, you shall make it abundantly clear to your distributors and/or end users, that SafeNet is not and shall not, under any circumstances, be responsible or liable in any way for the software and software licenses contained in your computer programs which you merge with the SafeNet Software and distribute to your distributors and/or end users, including, without limitation, with respect to extending license terms and providing maintenance for any software elements and/or computer programs which are not the SafeNet Software. SafeNet expressly disclaims any responsibility and liability with respect to any computer programs, software elements, and/or hardware elements which are not and do not form part of the SafeNet product.

You may enable or disable certain features when applying the Sentinel HASP protection software by changing settings in the Sentinel HASP tools in accordance with the Sentinel HASP Software Protection and Licensing Guide; HOWEVER, IT IS IMPORTANT TO NOTE THAT WHEN ENABLING OR DISABLING SOME FEATURES YOU MIGHT REDUCE THE LEVEL OF PROTECTION PROVIDED BY THE SOFTWARE.

TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED BY LAW, SAFENET EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL EXPRESS WARRANTIES NOT STATED HERE AND ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NO SAFENET'S DEALER, DISTRIBUTOR, RESELLER, AGENT OR EMPLOYEE IS AUTHORIZED TO MAKE ANY MODIFICATIONS, EXTENSIONS, OR ADDITIONS TO THIS WARRANTY. If any modifications are made to the Software or to any other part of the Product by you; if the media and the Sentinel HASP key is subjected to accident, abuse, or improper use; or if you violate any of the terms of this Agreement, then the warranty in Section 2.3 above, shall immediately be terminated. The warranty shall not apply if the Software is used on or in conjunction with hardware or program other than the unmodified version of hardware and program with which the Software was designed to be used as described in the Sentinel HASP Software Protection and Licensing Guide.

Sentinel HASP HL Drive—Overview

Sentinel HASP HL Drive is a device that combines the powerful copy-protection and licensing capabilities of the HASP HL Max key with the convenience of a mass storage drive.

The USB-based HASP HL Drive is available in a variety of Flash drive sizes. Sizes are updated according to market preferences. Your SafeNet representative will advise you on the sizes currently available.

HASP HL Drive includes HASP HL Max key functionality and a Flash memory that can be used as a mass storage device and/or for a CD-ROM emulator.

Before you load your applications and data on HASP HL Drive, you can protect it using Sentinel HASP Envelope and DataHASP. For more information about using DataHASP, see the Sentinel HASP Software Protection and Licensing Guide.

Using HASP HL Drive's partitioning utility, you can load your HASP-protected applications and data onto the CD-ROM partition of a HASP HL Drive, and ship it to your customers. Your customer can save files to HASP HL Drive, or load additional software on it, thus utilizing the convenience of disk-on-key functionality.

By default, HASP HL Drive's Flash memory is fully allocated as a mass storage device. Using the partitioning utility or the API, you can create a CD-ROM emulation partition on which you can load your software data.

Sentinel HASP HL Drive Partition Utility

---

This chapter describes how to use the utility to partition your Sentinel HASP HL Drives.

The HASP HL Drive and API enable you to:

- Partition the HASP HL Drive to create a CD-ROM emulator area
- Specify the size of the Flash memory relative to the CD-ROM emulator
- Load files to the CD-ROM emulator

CAUTION:

You must connect the HASP HL Drive to a certified PC, in which the USB ports were evaluated as a Limited power source according to UL60950 standard 2.5.

Running the Partition Utility

Partitioning can only be performed on a single HASP HL Drive at a time. Before you start, connect a HASP HL Drive to your computer and ensure that you have a Sentinel HASP Run-time Environment installed.

You can specify what percentage of the available memory will be used as a mass storage device (Flash memory) and what percentage will be for CD-ROM emulation. In addition, you can load applications and data to the HASP HL Drive.

Before You Start

Before you run the partitioning utility, you must consider the following points:

- HASP HL Drive is supported for Windows XP and Windows 2003. (Note however that, at run-time, the HASP HL Drive can run on any platform that HASP HL supports. Operating systems that do not have a mass-storage driver already installed—for example, Windows 98—must have one installed.)
- Only folders may be copied, not individual files.
- Folders may only be copied from a sub-directory of a drive, not from the root directory.
- When creating a CD-ROM partition, data must be copied into the area to prevent the operating system recognizing it as a non-formatted CD-ROM.
- When specifying the ROM volume, include a buffer to ensure there is room for files that may be slightly larger than their stated size.
- The contents of the INI file in which the partitioning parameters are stored may only contain ASCII characters (saved as ANSI encoding).

To partition a HASP HL Drive:

1. From your program file directory, select:

...\Program Files\SafeNet\Sentinel HASP\Vendor Tools\Utilities\Drive Partition\HHLDPartition.exe

The application opens.

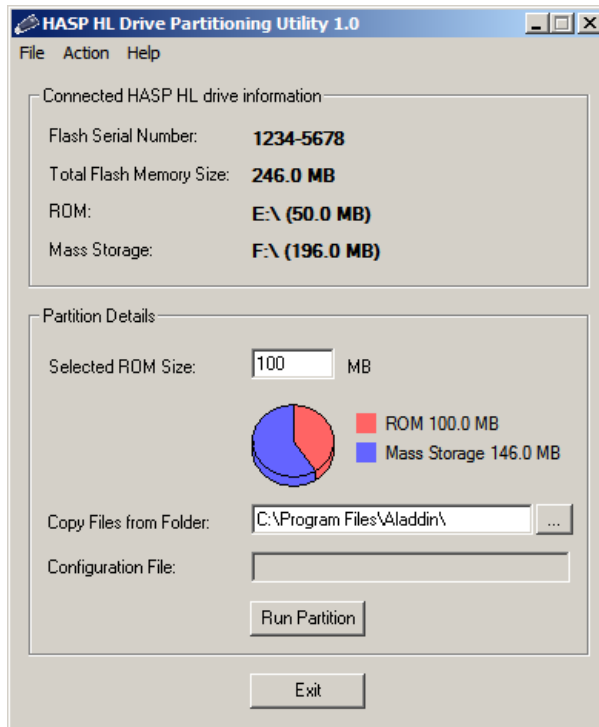

---

Note:

If you have not connected a HASP HL Drive to your computer, you are prompted to do so.

The window is divided into two sections:

- ◆ Information about the connected HASP HL Drive.
This area of the window provides the following information:
  - ◆ Serial number of the HASP HL Drive
  - ◆ Total volume of the Flash memory
  - ◆ Total volume of ROM
  - ◆ Total volume of mass storage memory
- ◆ Information about how the Flash memory is partitioned.
This area of the window enables you to specify the following partitioning parameters:
  - ◆ Size of ROM
  - ◆ Name and location of files that are to be copied to the ROM.
This field is only enabled when you have specified a ROM size.
Note: You cannot copy data from a CD or DVD.
  - ◆ Name and location of configuration file.

2. Specify the required partition parameters. The pie chart in the window graphically displays the proportion of ROM to mass memory that will be allocated according to your specifications.
  3. Click Browse to navigate to and select the folder that contains the files that are to be copied to the ROM, if required.

Note:

If you want to utilize the auto-run function, you must place an auto-run file in the root of the selected folder.

4. Click Run Partition.

WARNING!

A message is displayed, warning you that all data on the connected HASP HL Drive will be erased.

---

Click OK to proceed. You are prompted to wait while the partitioning is performed.

Alternatively, click Cancel to quit the partitioning process.

5. When prompted, at the end of the partitioning process, disconnect and reconnect the HASP HL Drive. A message indicating that the partitioning has been completed successfully is displayed.
6. Click OK. The application window displays updated information about the partitioned HASP HL Drive.

Saving Your Settings

You can save the partitioning parameters that you specify in an INI file for future use.

To save the partitioning specifications:

1. In the HASP HL Drive Partitioning Utility window, select File > Save As.
2. Name your file and click Save. The saved file and path is displayed in the Configuration File field of the main application window.

You can open a saved file by selecting File > Open in the HASP HL Drive Partitioning Utility window.

0x207	Erase data error: ROM partition specification error

hasp_drv_WriteROMData()

Description

This function writes the content of the specified folder to the ROM partition.

Syntax

CDFS_DLL_API hasp_drv_WriteROMData (
    BYTE    bhasp_drvDriveLetter,
    WCHAR   *strRomSource,
    WCHAR   *strRomLabel,
    DWORD   dwFlags,
    );

Parameters

<code>bhasp_drvDriveLetter</code>	Drive letter of ROM partition to which content will be written
<code>strRomSource</code>	Path to the folder containing the data to be written to the ROM partition
<code>strRomLabel</code>	Label of the ROM partition. If 0, no label is assigned.
<code>dwFlags</code>	Reserved for future use

Return Values

0	Request was successfully completed
0x501	Input drive error
0x502	Input parameter error (e.g. Directory path error)
0x503	Unable to create volume descriptor
0x504	Unable to create path table
0x505	Buffer overflow
0x506	Unable to create Directory record
0x507	Unable to update table data to HASP HL Drive

0x508	Unable to update file data to HASP HL Drive
0x50F	Over driver size
0x510	Unable to retrieve partition size
0x5F1	CD-ROM image error
0x5F2	CD-ROM image already on CD-ROM partition

Usage Note

If the ROM partition drive path (for example, G:\) does not have an associated folder, it will not be recognized as a formatted CD-ROM.

hasp_drv_ComputeROMSize()

Description

This function calculates the size of the directory content.

Syntax

CDFS_DLL_API hasp_drv_ComputeROMSize (
    BYTE    bhasp_drvDriveLetter,
    WCHAR   *strRomSource,
    DWORD   *pdwCalculateRomSize,
);

Parameters

bhasp_drvDriveLetter	Letter of ROM partition to which content will be written
strRomSource	Path to the folder containing the data to be written to the ROM partition
pdwCalculateRomSize	Size of the directory content (Unit: 512 bytes)

Return Values

0	Request was successfully completed
0x601	Input drive error
0x602	Input parameter error (e.g. Directory path error)
0x603	Unable to create volume descriptor
0x604	Unable to create path table
0x605	Buffer overflow
0x606	Unable to create Directory record
0x610	Unable to retrieve size of HASP HL Drive

Usage Note

If the ROM partition drive path (for example, G:\) does not have an associated folder, it will not be recognized as a formatted CD-ROM.

Troubleshooting

This chapter describes problems you may encounter when using your Sentinel HASP HL Drives and their solutions.

Data on a HASP HL Drive plays as soon as the HASP HL Drive is connected

This behavior is the result of the auto-run feature starting when a HASP HL Drive is connected to a computer. It does not occur during initialization, but can be disruptive when multiple initializations are being performed.

Workaround:

The auto-run feature can be temporarily disabled. For instructions on disabling the auto-run feature, go to:

<http://msdn.microsoft.com/library/default.asp?url=/library/en-us/gp/212.asp>

New drive, or mapped network drive, unavailable in Windows Explorer

In Windows XP, connection of a HASP HL Drive can cause a collision with existing mapped network drives. Microsoft acknowledges that this a problem in the Microsoft products.

Workaround:

The workaround provided by Microsoft is available at:

<http://support.microsoft.com/?id=297694>

HASP HL Drive does not work correctly on end-user machine

It is recommended that a HASP HL Drive is connected directly to a USB hub on the computer. HASP HL Drives that are connected to a computer via a USB hub, USB port on a keyboard, or other peripheral USB connection, may not have enough power to work correctly.
